

Dudleya brittonii
Britton's Chalk Dudleya

Photograph by Susan Krzywicki

SUCCULENT - evergreen.
Rosette, 12 - 18" diameter. Caudex elongates in older plants.
Leaves finely pointed, dusted white.
Flowers yellow, occasionally green, on stems 1 - 3' tall - spring.

Native habitat: seaside cliffs - Baja California.

Full sun.
Tolerant to drought and sea breezes.
Tolerates some summer water.

Easily grown on local soil.
Spreads from seeds in garden.

