

Cupressus goveniana
Gowen Cypress

TREE - evergreen.

To 25' high.

Slender branchlets.

Leaves bright green with yellowish cast.

Cones about 1" long.

Native habitat: closed-cone pine/cypress forests, coastal terrace below 1500' - Monterey Peninsula.

Full sun to part shade.

Needs coastal moisture.

RARE - CNPS List 1B.2

(Rare, threatened or endangered in California and elsewhere.

Fairly endangered in California).

