

GOLDEN JUBILEE CELEBRATIONS

Centre for Catholic Formation, Tooting Bec

The Centre for Catholic Formation was officially opened by Archbishop Cyril Cowderoy on 19 June 1968. To mark the 50th anniversary, the CCF will host a series of lectures relating to its work. A Jubilee Mass will be held on Sat 23 June 2018 (3.30pm), at St Anselm's Tooting Bec, Archbishop Peter Smith will preside.

THE PRIORITY OF ADULT FORMATION Tuesday 5 June 2018 (7pm for 7.30pm)

Bishop Paul Mason, auxiliary bishop for Kent, will explore the pressing need for ongoing adult formation in the Faith.

THE CATECHETICAL JOURNEY Friday 8 June 2018 (7.30pm)

Dr Caroline Farey will trace the way in which catechesis has been understood over the last 50 years and where we might be heading.

GK CHESTERTON Thursday 14 June 2018 (7.30pm)

A talk on Gilbert Keith (GK) Chesterton by Canon John Udris, the priest appointed to look into the cause for GK's canonisation.

DISABILITY THEOLOGY: WHERE WE ARE Tuesday 19 June 2018 (7.30pm)

Dr Pia Matthews will speak on the current state of disability theology, offering some new approaches for parishes in the diocese.

21 Tooting Bec Road, London, SW17 8BS
office@ccftootingbec.org.uk // 020 8672 7684
www.ccftootingbec.org.uk

An agency of the Archdiocese of Southwark CIO 1173050