2019 Grant Recipients

Landfall Foundation awards 89 grants totaling $400,000

Wilmington, NC - On November 5, 2019 the Landfall Foundation presented checks totaling $400,000 to 89 Wilmington area non-profit organizations. This year’s distribution brings a total of over $5 million donated to local non-profits and schools since the Foundation’s inception in 1995. This amount does not include two capital grants totaling $34,300 awarded earlier this year, one each to the Good Shepherd Center and the Wilmington Children’s Museum, nor the approximately $15,000 contributed toward scholarships to Landfall employees given by the Foundation.

In the area of the Arts, numerous grant requests aimed to improve our city culturally. These included the North Carolina Jazz Festival and the Cucalorus Film Festival. Other programs targeted cultural experiences for students attending TIER I schools. These recipients include: DREAMS, Brigade Boys and Girls Club and the North Carolina Symphony, which performs for over 2,000 children.

The many Education and Health and Welfare grants included funding for basic items like books, clothes, emergency supplies and graduation gowns. Additionally, the Foundation provided funding for items like iPads and Chromebooks, and programs like STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering & Math) and IXL (Math learning programs). Funding was also granted to students with an eye toward higher education by funding college visits for students who are first-generation college hopefuls. The Hill School, Oasis and New Hanover’s Bridging the Gap Program all received funding to help students with learning challenges.

Foundation grants broadly targeted hunger and poor nutrition in kids and adults. There were a variety of recipients, including Nourish NC, which offers nutritious food to children when they are not in school, and Meals on Wheels, which provides food to Seniors, among others.

Through the generosity of Landfall Foundation supporters, we have provided meaningful assistance for 25 years to non-profit organizations to fund programs in the categories of Arts, Education and Health and Welfare. Annual Landfall Foundation fundraising events include the Spring Gala, the September Legends of Tennis, the August Art Show and Sale, and the December Holiday Marketplace. Co-chairs for the 2019 Landfall Foundation Grants Committee are Karen Rogalski and Linda Harootyan.
