COLOR isn't just a COLOR

Did you know colors have feelings,

relationships

and temperatures?

Color & Mood

Artists use colors to convey a mood in their artwork.

Use your markers to make your own emoticons.

COLOR RELATIONSHIPS

Just like people, colors have relationships. Colors can look different depending on what colors they're next too.

COMPLEMENTARY COLORS are opposite each other on a color wheel.

Complementary colors make each other stand out.

Color your own set of complementary colors

ANALOGOUS COLORS are next to each other on a color wheel.

Analogous colors make each other blend in.

Color your own set of analogous colors.

COLOR & TEMPERATURE

Artists often use color to show when things are hot or cold.

Use your markers to practice using warm and cool colors.

Draw a hot summer day

Draw a cool winter day
