Loring Park Art Festival Celebrates Its 19th Year July 28 & 29, 2018

(Minneapolis, Minn.) March 13, 2018 – The Loring Park Art Festival will return to downtown Minneapolis for its nineteenth consecutive year on July 28 and 29, 2018.

The two-day juried festival continues to bring exceptional artwork from 140 artists of all disciplines. Artists exhibiting oil paintings, watercolors, handmade paper, sculpture, textiles, photography, glass, ceramics, jewelry, mixed-media, prints and more will be represented in the 2018 festival. A variety of artistic pieces will be available at a wide range of prices making it possible for art lovers to take home one-of-a-kind artwork.

Organizers of the nationally-acclaimed event expect more than 25,000 in attendance. As always, festival goers will enjoy family events, food vendors, live music, and unique entertainment in the beautiful outdoor setting of Loring Park. ABOUT THE LORING PARK ART FESTIVAL

The Loring Park Art Festival was founded in 1999 by Pat Parnow, Mary Ann Wunderlin, and Carol Haubner. It is currently produced by Artists for Artists LLP and managed by artist partners Pat Parnow and Cindy Jacobson. Since 1999, Loring Park Art Festival has combined creative expression and community connectedness to surprise and delight all who attend. With beautiful ponds and formal gardens, Loring Park makes an idyllic spot to celebrate art, music, food, play and friends for two days each summer in downtown Minneapolis.
