

Teen Suicide Prevention Program 2017

The Teen Suicide Prevention (TSP) Program is a collaborative effort between The Alaska Community Foundation and Alaska Children's Trust with support from the State of Alaska. The program awards small grants to promote community-based efforts to support youth suicide prevention. Applicants are encouraged to achieve this by aligning their projects with strategies from the Alaska State Suicide Prevention Plan.

Project Name	Organization Name	Awarded
AGSD Phlight Club	Alaska Gateway School District	$ 5,000
Anchorage School Based Health Centers - Begich Middle School Behavioral Health Counseling	Christian Health Associates DBA Anchorage School Based Health Centers	$ 5,000
Suicide Prevention Poster Series	Covenant House Alaska	$ 5,000
Growing New Roots- The Healing Power of Music in a Time of Transition	Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival	$ 5,000
Sources of Strength Learning Network Conference	Kenai Peninsula Borough School District	$ 5,000
Teen Suicide Prevention Media Training Project	Koahnic Broadcast Corporation	$ 5,000
Boys and Girls Club/After School Activities	Native Village of Elim	$ 5,000
Teen Business Building	Native Village of Hooper Bay	$ 5,000
2nd Annual OPT in Kiana Youth Conference	Native Village of Kiana	$ 5,000
Teen focus on self healing	Native Village of Paimiut	$ 5,000
Nuniaq Outdoor Survival Camp	Old Harbor Alliance	$ 5,000
Ride Strong	Wellspring Revival Ministries	$ 5,000
RFK Hope Camp - Early Intervention, Prevent Depression, Suicide, Heal Hearts and Give Hope	Royal Family KIDS Mat-Su	$ 5,000
Girls Rock Camp Alaska - Summer Camp Suicide Prevention Education	Girls Rock Camp Alaska	$ 5,000
Teen Suicide Prevention	City of Toksook Bay	$ 4,500
Caregiving from the Corral	AURORA	$ 3,742
Metlakatla Youth to Elder Project	Metlakatla Indian Community-Employment and Training	$ 3,676

Total Grants Awarded $ 81,918

The Native Village of Unalakleet

Unalakleet

Youth Cultural Strengthening

$5,000.00

Women in Safe Homes

Ketchikan

Peer Education Group

$4,500.00