Taught By: Nancy Nojima

Hosted By: Suzanne Miyabe

“This is my command: Love one another.” John 15:17

Marriage is a gift from God! It is intended to be a loving, joyful, rich, and intimate relationship! But we can get stuck in the same hurtful conflict pattern that divides us, when God wants us to be united as one.

- Do you want to show Christ-like love to your spouse and have more closeness in your marriage?
- Do you feel frustrated or hopeless with repetitive arguments?

Join us for this class based on the book “How We Love” by Christian authors Milan and Kay Yerkovich. They expertly explain how our childhood experiences imprint us to behave and react unintentionally in unhealthy and hurtful ways in marriage. These Love Styles are Avoider, Pleaser, Vacillator, Controller and Victim.

In this class you will learn about your Love Style to better understand yourself.

- Practical tips will be emphasized in a setting of community.
- Old habits take time to practice to change.
- You will learn to deeply listen, value feelings, comfort and connect with your spouse.

Come join us to discover truths that will transform your marriage!
