

What does co-operative living mean to you?

Why do you want to live in Watermargin?

What are you passionate about?

With unlimited resources, what event would you host at Watermargin?

If you could teach one thing to someone you love, what would it be?

Watermargin's mission is to encourage the expression of diverse views, to struggle against injustice, and to consciously create a caring space and community that reflects these values. How would you further this mission?

Name & Pronouns:

NetID:

Major // Minor :

Graduation Year:

Check if willing to: (check all that apply)

Single  Double

Preferred roommate? (optional)

Favorite & least favorite thing/space to clean?

If you were a bagel what type of bagel would you be and why?

Feel free to use this space for personal expression and you may move to the back side if you would like more space:

- Do you identify as a person of color?
- Do you experience financial hardship?
- Are you on Watermargin's Meal Plan?
- Have you moseyed Watermargin before?

If there is anything making your current living situation difficult that may be relevant to your choice to mosey Watermargin, you may email Carlton at clr238@cornell.edu. Details will be kept confidential upon request.