A NIGHT FOR MUSIC AND CELEBRATION!

Join us for this free concert as the world turns toward the longer days of spring. A bevy of artists (including Lisa Winter, Fr. Peter Kirchner, John Perry, Dave Virnala, Dennis Happel, Lou Hoglund, Marie Nitke, Doug Eckes, Michael Dagen, Amber Fletschock, Adam Dagen, Jim Van Schaick, Amy Wallgren, Heidi Dresser, Ben Ranson, Nora Hyde, David Stoddard, Renita McGrane, and Macelle Mahala) will be at the Center to celebrate the solstice and the season of light. We hope you can come to this free, informal concert, the last Cultural Center event of the year.

And we'll introduce everyone to the coming “winter light” festivities to be held February 2nd (Candlemas Day and Groundhog Day, midway between the winter solstice and the vernal equinox), a new project supported by a cultural heritage grant provided by Lake Region Arts Council and by the generous support of the members of the Cultural Center.

Ann DuHamel:
Concert Pianist and Teacher
LRAC 2019 Artist Cohort Participant

Praised for her “imaginative ...profound and mystical” playing as well as her enthusiastic teaching, pianist Ann DuHamel serves as Head of Keyboard Studies at the University of Minnesota, Morris, where she coordinates and teaches solo, collaborative, and group piano, as well as piano pedagogy. She recently earned a DMA in Piano Performance and Pedagogy from the University of Iowa under the tutelage of Ksenia Nosikova. Prior to her time at UI, she was Assistant Director to Paul Wirth at the Central MN Music School.

In 2013 Ann received the MTNA-PTG Performance Study scholarship to work with Lowell Liebermann on his solo piano nocturnes. In collaboration with saxophonist Preston Duncan as the duo Kairos, she commissioned and premiered a new work at the 12th Annual International Saxophone Conference in Mexico City, where her playing and teaching was described as “...a delight for the ears and the soul.” A founding member of new music group ensemble: Périphérie, she returned to Carnegie Weill Recital Hall in New York City with the ensemble under the auspices of DCINY (Distinguished Concerts International New York) in the fall of 2013; reviews from this performance include “... they are all superb musicians as individuals and have a musical rapport as an ensemble...” and “… the exceptional performance from EP.” Past performances include venues in Argentina, Bulgaria, Canada, Italy, Mexico, and across the U.S., including the San Francisco Festival of Contemporary Music; upcoming performances include venues in Minneapolis, Seattle, and Sweden.

LRAC Gallery Exhibits

Main Gallery
"Snow Country Prison: Interned in North Dakota"
Are you surprised to know that there were WWII prisoner of war camps in Minnesota and North Dakota? You now have a rare opportunity to see what life was like for the 3,850 German and Japanese interned at Fort Lincoln, North Dakota from 1942-1946.

The Lake Region Arts Council is hosting the exhibit “Snow Country Prison: Interned in North Dakota”. The exhibit is on loan from the ND Museum of Art. Teachers are encouraged to book a tour of this exhibit for their classes. Contact the LRAC office to reserve a time and for lesson plans.

This exhibit combines official photographs from Border Patrol and INS (Immigration and Naturalization Services) with dozens of haiku (small, graceful Japanese poems). The haiku were provided by Satsuki Ina, whose father spent eighteen months as a prisoner in Fort Lincoln. The reader is struck by how accurately Ina's father evokes - with singular and simple words - the landscape, the season, and the weather of this new country, coupled with the loneliness and grief that lie at the heart of internment. Without these poems, the "official" photos of ski jumps, beer gardens, and musicals would define those years as one long picnic.

THIS EXHIBIT IS A ONCE IN A LIFETIME EXPERIENCE YOU WON'T WANT TO MISS!

Mee Lee - Textile Artist

Lee was born in Seoul, South Korea and became interested in textile art from her mother, who had a degree in fashion design. Mee Lee received her Master's degree in Fine Arts from Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, VA.

The following is from her LRAC Artist Cohort Artist Statement: "My artwork is about "thought of life" with abstract landscapes. My spiritual thoughts from daily routine life are layered over the landscape image with lines and colors.

I see beauty in the nature that God created for us: peaceful horizons, awesome sunsets, wondrous light beams, sweet spring rain, etc. My hope is to visualize these beautiful images with the spiritual thoughts of love, peace, hope, truth, and faith. My art allows me to thoughtfully search through peaceful meditation, a joyful life.

Specifically created abstract concepts set free expressions via color and lines. This allows me to create artwork seen through the mind's eye, as well as visually. It's an interesting concept, isn't it?

In fiber art, instead of painting on canvas with paint and brushes, I dye canvas fabric and put together the quilting, sewing, weaving, or stitching that make up the design. My palette is full of different dyed fabrics and threads. After I have completed my sketches in a small notebook, the excitement for me is to see the transformed textile pieces.

I hope you enjoy these pieces of art displayed in the gallery and hope you experience beautiful, meditative moments, too."

2019 Early Career & Emerging Artists with Disabilities Grant Program

Grants are available from VSA Minnesota to help Minnesota artists with disabilities who are early (emerging) in their artistic careers and want to create new work.

Six grants of $2,000 each will be awarded in early 2019 to writers, performers, composers, visual or multi-media artists who create new, original work (not a performance of someone else’s song or play). Grant money can be used for whatever will help the artist create and present this new work – art supplies, a class, mentor, computer, camera, time to do research, festival entry fees, etc.

Artists submit a simple application including samples of recent work, an artistic resume, list of exhibits or other accomplishments, an “artist’s statement” of their approach to their art, and a narrative with a budget to outline what they want to do with the grant.

Deadline is February 1, 2019. Instructions and then call the program officer prior to beginning an application.
