Join us for Democracy Fights Back at City Winery on October 10 for feature performances by Louder Than a Bomb young artists.

Louder Than a Bomb (LTAB) is the world's largest youth poetry slam. Founded by Kevin Coval and Anna West in 2001, LTAB gives voice to lived experiences of young people of color in Chicago and unleashes youth creativity across different neighborhoods.

Check out the incredible talent of these young performers:
Join us for our Annual Benefit on October 10 from 5:30pm - 8:30pm at City Winery where we will honor LTAB, pro bono lawyer Terry Dee, and Skadden Arps Slate Meagher & Flom LLP for their leadership to advance justice and opportunity.
