Bring Justice Home is just one week away!

Don't forget to get your tickets and join us next Tuesday, Oct. 2 at Theater on the Lake.

We'll hear former HUD Secretary Julián Castro speak about housing justice 50 years after passage of the Fair Housing Act, and honor emerging leaders in Chicago who are disrupting the status quo and demanding real reform.

This year, we commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Fair Housing Act and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s leadership role in Chicago's Freedom Movement. As we honor the past, we also celebrate new leaders that are demanding change to BRING JUSTICE HOME to all neighborhoods in our city and region.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
The Honorable Julián Castro
Former Housing and Urban Development Secretary

MASTER OF CEREMONIES
Lisa Parker
NBC's Chicago
