Your vote matters! You have the power to remove those who practice injustice.

Did you know? According to people incarcerated in Stateville Correctional Center*: 93% feel their right to vote is "very important" 63% are unaware of their right to vote after release 73% are unaware of the process required in Illinois to reclaim their voting rights

Questions? Were you turned away from the polls? Do you feel your voting rights above were violated? Call Election Protection at 866-OUR-VOTE for help in Spanish: 888-VE-Y-VOTA

More resources: Illinois State Board of Elections: 312-814-6440
Cook County Clerk’s Office (for suburban Cook County voters): 312-603-5656
Chicago Board of Election Commissioners: 312-269-7900 (TTY 312-269-0027)

Based on research conducted by the members of the Law and Policy Think Tank of Stateville Correctional Center and led by Dr. Christine Evans of DePaul University

How to Vote

If you have previously been convicted of a crime in Illinois

Even if you have previously been convicted of a crime, you will most likely still be able to vote in the Illinois midterm election on November 6, 2018.

That’s how many Illinois voters cast a ballot in the last midterm in November 2014.

Governor
Ensures proper execution of the laws in Illinois.

Illinois Attorney General
Advocates on behalf of all people in Illinois, helps make new laws, and enforces the laws across Illinois.

Illinois Secretary of State
Keeps the state’s records and runs vehicle registration and driver licensing across the state.

Learn about each candidate on your ballot at www.ballotready.org

Candidates compete this election for:

- US House Representative
  Writes bills, serves on committees, and votes on America’s laws.

- Judges
  These elected officials have a significant impact on the lives of individuals in the criminal justice system.

And more...

If you are a citizen and have served your sentence and have been released, you are again eligible to vote in Illinois.

Who CAN vote?
- People who have already served their sentence for conviction of a crime and have been released
- People who have been arrested or charged with a crime but have NOT been convicted of that crime
- People who are in jail awaiting trial for a crime they have been charged with (for example, most residents of Cook County jail)

Who CANNOT vote?
- People in jail or prison serving a sentence for conviction of a crime
- People on furlough from jail or prison
- Residents of Adult Transition Centers
- Non-U.S. citizens
- People under 18 years old

93% 63% 73%

I f you are a citizen and have served your sentence and have been released, you are again eligible to vote in Illinois.

Who CAN vote?
- People who have already served their sentence for conviction of a crime and have been released
- People who have been arrested or charged with a crime but have NOT been convicted of that crime
- People who are in jail awaiting trial for a crime they have been charged with (for example, most residents of Cook County jail)

Who CANNOT vote?
- People in jail or prison serving a sentence for conviction of a crime
- People on furlough from jail or prison
- Residents of Adult Transition Centers
- Non-U.S. citizens
- People under 18 years old

Did you know? According to people incarcerated in Stateville Correctional Center*: 93% feel their right to vote is "very important" 63% are unaware of their right to vote after release 73% are unaware of the process required in Illinois to reclaim their voting rights

Questions? Were you turned away from the polls? Do you feel your voting rights above were violated? Call Election Protection at 866-OUR-VOTE for help in Spanish: 888-VE-Y-VOTA

More resources: Illinois State Board of Elections: 312-814-6440
Cook County Clerk’s Office (for suburban Cook County voters): 312-603-5656
Chicago Board of Election Commissioners: 312-269-7900 (TTY 312-269-0027)

How to Vote

If you have previously been convicted of a crime in Illinois

Even if you have previously been convicted of a crime, you will most likely still be able to vote in the Illinois midterm election on November 6, 2018.

That’s how many Illinois voters cast a ballot in the last midterm in November 2014.

Governor
Ensures proper execution of the laws in Illinois.

Illinois Attorney General
Advocates on behalf of all people in Illinois, helps make new laws, and enforces the laws across Illinois.

Illinois Secretary of State
Keeps the state’s records and runs vehicle registration and driver licensing across the state.

Learn about each candidate on your ballot at www.ballotready.org

Candidates compete this election for:

- US House Representative
  Writes bills, serves on committees, and votes on America’s laws.

- Judges
  These elected officials have a significant impact on the lives of individuals in the criminal justice system.

And more...

If you are a citizen and have served your sentence and have been released, you are again eligible to vote in Illinois.

Who CAN vote?
- People who have already served their sentence for conviction of a crime and have been released
- People who have been arrested or charged with a crime but have NOT been convicted of that crime
- People who are in jail awaiting trial for a crime they have been charged with (for example, most residents of Cook County jail)

Who CANNOT vote?
- People in jail or prison serving a sentence for conviction of a crime
- People on furlough from jail or prison
- Residents of Adult Transition Centers
- Non-U.S. citizens
- People under 18 years old

Did you know? According to people incarcerated in Stateville Correctional Center*: 93% feel their right to vote is "very important" 63% are unaware of their right to vote after release 73% are unaware of the process required in Illinois to reclaim their voting rights

Questions? Were you turned away from the polls? Do you feel your voting rights above were violated? Call Election Protection at 866-OUR-VOTE for help in Spanish: 888-VE-Y-VOTA

More resources: Illinois State Board of Elections: 312-814-6440
Cook County Clerk’s Office (for suburban Cook County voters): 312-603-5656
Chicago Board of Election Commissioners: 312-269-7900 (TTY 312-269-0027)