In its heyday, Chuck-A-Burger had eight drive-in diners in the St. Louis area. We were well known for our quality food, wholesome environment, and friendly curbside service. It was a favorite place for dining and cruising.

Over the years the American lifestyle became more and more fast-paced. Fast food chains with minimized menus and drive-thru service became more appealing. Sadly, drive-in diners became obsolete relics. In 1973 all but one Chuck-A-Burger, located at 9025 St. Charles Rock Road, closed their doors. Your continued (and frequent) patronage is crucial to the future of Chuck-A-Burger.

Please don't let history repeat itself.

The Stille family and everyone here at Chuck-A-Burger want to thank our loyal customers for your support over the years. Also, any suggestions or comments that you have are always welcome and greatly appreciated. And remember...

Keep on Cruisin'
