Johnson & Wales University does not discriminate unlawfully on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, or disability, in admission to, access to, treatment of, or employment in its programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the Nondiscrimination Policy: University Compliance Officer, Johnson & Wales University, One Cookson Place, Providence, RI 02903, 401-598-1423.

Part II – Chef Recommendations

Request letters of recommendation from two lab faculty (chefs) using the Faculty Recommendation Form.

Part III – Essay Questions

Please respond to the question in section A, followed by two additional questions of your choice from section B (total questions answered = three questions).

You may respond to the questions via a short video included in your online photo portfolio, or in written format.

Section A (please respond to the following question)

- Why would you like to enroll in the Bachelor of Science in Baking & Pastry Arts program (P-4) and not Food Service Management?

Section B (please respond to two of the following questions)

- Where do you find inspiration for your work?
- How do you remain connected to the industry and follow industry trends?
- How do you plan to keep your education updated after you graduate?
- In your eyes, what makes up the perfect Bachelor of Science in Baking & Pastry Arts degree student?
- What professional book and trade journal do you think are “must reads” for all Bachelor of Science in Baking & Pastry Arts degree students?
- Where did you complete your first internship? Why did you choose this site?

Part IV – Photo Portfolio

Create an online portfolio with photos of your baking and pastry work. You are welcome to use any online platform you wish, but below are some examples of free websites that can be used for photo sharing:

- weebly.com
- blogger.com
- flickr.com

The photos should consist of work that you have completed as student, as well as any work you have completed outside of your courses.

To combat photo plagiarism, we ask that photos include your name tag next to the product, or a picture of you holding the product. We realize this may not be possible for all photos, particularly if you are a transfer student, but this will assist us in ensuring that the work is truly yours.

The photos should be representative of the entire range of your baking and pastry experience, including pies & tarts, petits fours, breads, cakes, plated desserts, chocolates, and sugar.

Part V – Submission of Application

- Please email a URL link for your photo portfolio (and video responses to essay questions if applicable) to PVDBSappBPA@jwu.edu.
- Once all application materials are completed, please submit the following documents to Karin Lucier via email or mail:
 1. Completed Part I of this application (do not forget to sign and include page 2)
 2. An Updated Resume in Microsoft Word, PDF, or RTF format (do not send documents in Pages format)
 3. Written Essay Question Responses (if not submitted as a video response in your online photo portfolio)
 4. Degree Progress Evaluation, found in the Grad Planning Section of JWU Link (Students applying from outside of Johnson & Wales University, please send official transcripts)
 5. Change of Status Form (for students currently enrolled at Johnson & Wales only)
- To submit via email, please scan the documents and email to PVDBSappBPA@jwu.edu

To submit via mail or drop off, please send to:

Karin Lucier
Johnson & Wales University
Culinary Administration
Cuisinart Center for Culinary Excellence
333 Shipyard St.
Providence, RI 02905

Your application will be reviewed and evaluated by a panel of Baking & Pastry faculty.

After the submission of ALL materials to the appropriate party, you will be contacted within four weeks regarding your acceptance into the program.
