Cemetery Rules

No artificial flowers, ornaments, or candles allowed on gravesites. Potted plants (up to 2) may be placed on the grave marker only (5 gallon).

Gravesites may have a maximum of 2 approved flower vases. Permanent flower vases can be purchased from the office. Green temporary vases are available for use (up to 2) and are located throughout the cemetery grounds.

No alterations of gravesites are allowed. This includes, but is not limited to, the installation of fences or any type of border.

Flowers will be removed on Thursdays each week. This may change with respect to weather conditions, appearance of the flowers, and/or maintenance needs.

Christmas decorations will be allowed one week prior to Christmas Day and may remain through New Year’s Day. Following New Year’s Day they will be removed.

No animals are allowed on the cemetery grounds with the exception of service animals and horse drawn hearses.

Possession of any open containers of alcoholic beverages on the premises, parking lot, or adjoining sidewalk is prohibited by Riverside County Ordinance 694. Violators are subject to arrest.

The speed limit on the cemetery grounds is 10 mph.
