

Outings

Words and Photographs by Sandra Rose

Time seems to fly these days...and one outing merges in with another.

August

August saw us go to the Ekka. Most of us dropped in and saw the photographic display, where several of our members had entries. We have seen a few photos in club competition this month.

Next outing was the Hunt and Shoot Challenge, which was well attended this year. Judging was last Friday, with Sharon Smith and Jeannette Zanotto leading the way. Selecting the subjects, I had in mind what I would photograph and your interpretation was very similar. I probably should have taken Dave Lamb up on the Battle of the Sexes for the Hunt & Shoot Challenge, because the girls rocked it.

Even partners caught the spirit and I have included a photo by Ronnie Lombard taken on the challenge.

September

September took us up the range to the Carnival of Flowers in Toowoomba. How amazing was that! Twenty years in Brisbane and this was the first time I have been to Toowoomba in September.

This was my first visit to the Japanese Gardens (which I have been told is from Expo 88). It was a photographer's dream. And I managed to find a park that is for waterfowls only.

That brings us to Riverfire on the last weekend of September.

Nothing like being amongst the crowds wrangling a tripod.

October

So after such a busy year, the outings are winding down, with only 2 more official outings to come.

October is a visit to the David Fleay Wildlife Park on the 10th October. This park belongs to National Parks and is where native animals that cannot be rehabilitated to the wild live. I enjoy going here to photograph the animals. My personal favourite is the tree kangaroo. First time I have ever seen one, let alone photograph one.

I have even been charged by a cranky brolga who was looking after the baby.

November

November is an opportunity for first or return visits to Cabarita on 14th and 15th November to photograph the V8 Jet Boat Racing. We have seen several photos in competition this year, so this is a chance to grab your own photos.

Thanks to everyone for your support with outings this year. ■
