

Michael D. Stoneking

Bachelor of Architecture- Pennsylvania State University 1982

Registration- Pennsylvania, Virginia

Professional History

W.M. Design Group 1982-1983

Bohlin Cywinski Jackson 1983-1986

Alesker Reiff & Dundon 1986-1990

Darroff Design 1990-1991

Blackney Hayes Architects 1991-1992

Stoneking/ von Storch Architects 1992-present

Adjunct Instructor, School of Architecture - Drexel University, Philadelphia 1988-92

Adjunct Instructor, Architecture Design Studio, Spring Garden College, Philadelphia 1991

Public/ Professional Service Contributions

AIA Vice President Charlottesville Section of the James River Chapter 1995

- Helped establish media relations program

- Coordinated AIA exhibits

- Coordinated membership drive

- Active in Planning Commission, BAR hearings and reviews

AIA Board Member James River Chapter 1995-1997

- Liaison between JRC and Charlottesville Section

- Chapter representative to National AIA Convention- Atlanta

AIA President Charlottesville Section of the James River Chapter 1996

- Coordinated juried exhibit for local architects

- Managed Section budget

- Wrote monthly newsletter

- Conducted monthly member meetings

- Coordinated member programs and seminars

- Helped establish new AIA Chapter for Central Virginia, incorporating Charlottesville Section

Architecture Week

- Established first Architecture Week held in Charlottesville in April of 1996

- Later grew to include James River Chapter

- Ultimately was adopted as State-wide event

- Ongoing participation annually

Architecture in the Schools Program

Begun in Philadelphia by the Foundation for Architecture

Established in Charlottesville in 1993

Providing hands-on architectural education through projects in area public and private schools to raise awareness among children as to the importance of the built-environment.

Taught at variety of grade levels involving teachers, students and area architects for twelve years.

Steering Committee- Charlottesville Transit Center Project

Member 2003-2004

Helped guide the design and development of the Transit Center, Amphitheater and East End mall Improvements

Piedmont Housing Alliance

S/vS hosted Katie Swenson, as part of her Rose Fellowship, and Liz Hoogheem, as part of her Americor Fellowship, both while working for Piedmont Housing Alliance. S/vS provided space and limited supervision to satisfy the terms of the respective organizations.

Building Goodness Foundation

Board Member 2003- present (save 2014)

Vice President 2010-2012

President 2012-2014

Design and construction volunteer 2003- present

Locally founded non-profit group providing design and construction services to help build community worldwide. The BGF has constructed schools, clinics, housing and community buildings in Haiti, Guatemala, El Salvador and Liberia. BGF maintains a local presence as well, this year contributing skilled craftspeople to numerous Charlottesville-area projects.

Charlottesville Tomorrow

Member, Board of Directors

2016- present

Award-winning journalism covering information on key quality of life issues before local government in the City of Charlottesville and Albemarle County.

Lighthouse Studio

Member Board of Directors 2015

Building committee member and pro-bono Owner's Representative for capital outlay project 2015- present.

Charlottesville based no profit that brings young people together to make movies. Dedicated to helping students develop their vision and show their work.

Charlottesville PLACE Design Task Force

2016- present

Volunteer committee appointed by the City to guide the community in making decisions about place making, livability, and community engagement. To act as an advisory body to the Planning Commission and City Council in matters pertaining to urban design and place making.

Honors

Pennsylvania State Art Commission Award for Design Excellence- Harrisburg International Airport, Bohlin Cywinski Jackson- 1986 (Architectural Record 1989)

Pennsylvania State Art Commission Award for Design Excellence - Kutztown University Field house, Alesker Reiff & Dundon - 1987

Stoneking/ von Storch featured in Inform magazine as “emerging talent” - 1997

Winner of Nova Award for best designed fitness center, Results the Gym, Washington, D.C.- 1997

Virginia Society of the AIA Distinguished Achievement Award- 2005

Nominee- Charlottesville Planning Commission - Architect of the Year- 2006

American Institute of Architects Central Virginia – Community Service Award- 2006