Harvest of the Month highlights a locally available crop each month of the year in school cafeterias, community organizations, restaurants and grocery stores. The program helps children, their caregivers, and the broader community learn more about healthy, seasonal, whole-foods eating, while supporting local farms.

November

CELERY