There are now more Christ-followers in China than in the United States.
The World’s Mission Force

West

Majority

World

Latin America: little change

Africa: dramatic change

Asia: improvement in the east
Christians are facing a shrinking population in the liberal West and a growing majority of the traditional Rest. During the past half century the critical centers of the Christian world have moved decisively to Africa, to Latin America, and to Asia. The balance will never shift back.
