Total Therapy and Wellness Center provided by national leader in therapy and wellness, Aegis Therapies, opens in Dunwoody, GA

Grand opening on Wednesday, August 9 will feature tours and information regarding the specialty therapy and wellness programs offered at the site conveniently located within LA Fitness in Perimeter Point.

Dunwoody, GA. Aegis Therapies is proud to announce its grand opening on August 9, 2017 from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. The public is invited to visit the new Total Therapy and Wellness Center at 1155 Mount Vernon Hwy., Suite 600 – Aegis, Dunwoody, GA 30338 to learn more about the location’s exciting programs and offerings.

“We are excited to introduce the community to all our Total Therapy and Wellness Centers have to offer,” said Cindy Kasson, vice president of outpatient services at Aegis Therapies. “As people increasingly look at their health and wellness as a key component to quality of life, we are able to offer unique services that address the physical, occupational and speech therapy needs as well as overall wellness. Providing these services together helps our patients and customers experience the value and benefit of both therapy and wellness in a very beneficial and holistic manner.”

The location has been open for just over a month, and in addition to physical, occupational and speech therapy services, has a suite of targeted wellness classes that address specific medical concerns such as bone health, diabetes and weight management. Brian Boekhout, vice president of wellness services at Aegis Therapies, has seen how appropriate and targeted wellness programs can help people maintain positive outcomes following therapy as well as help prevent or minimize severity of injury.

“Wellness is a key part to maintaining an active lifestyle,” said Boekhout, “the wellness classes we offer utilize state-of-the-art equipment that addresses key challenges such as bone health, diabetes and balance disorders. Taking advantage of our evidence-based programs has been a successful component of many of our patients’ rehabilitation and wellness journeys.”

The grand opening celebration will feature facility tours, equipment demonstrations, a meet and greet with the Aegis Therapies' therapists and wellness director as well as a ribbon cutting ceremony at 5:00 p.m. with remarks from Aegis' president, Martha Schram as well as Cindy Kasson, Brian Boekhout and local dignitaries.

A full listing of classes and services offered and more information about the Aegis Total Therapy and Wellness Center in Dunwoody, GA can be found at www.AegisForLife.com or by calling 770-730-1702.
