You are supporting the mental health development of the children you serve by promoting healthy relationships with their caregivers!

IF YOU ANSWERED YES...
You are supporting the mental health development of the children you serve by promoting healthy relationships with their caregivers!

RECOGNIZE YOUR EXPERTISE
Endorsement® connects your professional experiences with a set of competencies that recognize your infant and/or early childhood mental health promotion expertise.

BENEFITS OF ENDORSEMENT®
- Enhance the quality of your relationship-based services
- Participate in ongoing and targeted professional development opportunities
- Join an international network of infant and early childhood professionals

INTERESTED?
Contact The Alliance!
info@allianceaimh.org

WHO
Early Childhood Educator, Court-Appointed Special Advocate (CASA), Lactation Consultant, Early Head/Head Start Teacher, Program Administrator, Home Visitor, Pediatric Health Care Provider, Early Intervention provider

DO YOU...
- Use a strengths based perspective and reinforce positive parent-child interactions?
- Recognize needs and make appropriate referrals?
- Share with families an understanding of relationship development?

DO YOU...
- Demonstrate respect for the uniqueness of each client family’s culture?
- Establish trusting relationships with the families you serve?
- And more?

Scope of work: Promotion
Serves children ages 0-6

INFANT/EARLY CHILDHOOD MENTAL HEALTH ENDORSEMENT®
Family Associate

Early Childhood Educator, Court-Appointed Special Advocate (CASA), Lactation Consultant, Early Head/Head Start Teacher, Program Administrator, Home Visitor, Pediatric Health Care Provider, Early Intervention provider

Endorsement® connects your professional experiences with a set of competencies that recognize your infant and/or early childhood mental health promotion expertise.