Combination therapy offers migraine patients a variety of tools to manage their migraine disease.

- 42% say the severity of their migraine attacks decreased.
- 44% were able to reduce the number of pain medications needed.

Yet many patients struggle to access the right combination of treatments.

- 68% patients faced insurance barriers accessing the combination of prescribed medications.

Patients need access to the combination of treatments that work for their migraine disease.

---

Survey conducted by Migraine Meanderings