1. How does the 1st Amendment refer to religion?

2. What is the colorful name for laws made by religious organizations?

3. Brian says that when the Founders were talking about the issue, they were not anti-religious or anti-Christian. But who did Thomas Jefferson say religion should be between?

4. In the 50 years after the Constitution was ratified, Ed says that religious belief exploded across the country. Name one of the three denominations in the country that were the fastest growing at that time?

Discussion question:

The Supreme Court has, on two occasions, argued about the constitutionality of having religious displays, like a nativity scene or menorah, on Government property. If the majority of the people in a state wanted such a display on the state house stairs, should it be allowed?
