How many of these refugees do you recognize?
(They all live/or have lived in the U.S.)

Albert Einstein (Physicist from Germany) arrived in America in 1933 after he and thousands of other Jews fled persecution.

Madeleine Albright (Diplomat from Czechoslovakia) became the first woman to be appointed U.S. Secretary of State in 1997.

Gloria Estefan (Singer from Cuba) fled the Cuban Revolution with her family in 1960 and became a seven-time Grammy Award-winning singer.

Sergey Brin (Google Co-founder from Russia) emigrated to the U.S. with his family to escape growing anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union.

Milos Forman (Film Director from Czechoslovakia) escaped from Nazi Germany early in his life and later moved to the U.S. after the Soviets invaded Czechoslovakia in 1968.

Isabel Allende (Author and Journalist from Chile; Born in Peru) fled to Venezuela with her husband and children and eventually received U.S. citizenship in 1993.

Andrew S. Grove (Chairman of Intel Corp. from Hungary) is a Holocaust survivor who resettled in the United States in 1957 and a long-time champion of refugees.

Henry Kissinger (Diplomat from Germany) fled persecution with his family in 1938 and served as former U.S. Secretary of State and National Security Advisor.

Iman Mohamed Abdulmajid (Supermodel from Somalia) left the 1969 coup, crossing into Kenya and became a supermodel in the U.S. where she started a cosmetics company, took up humanitarian causes and married David Bowie.

Mila Kunis (Actress from Soviet Ukraine) left her birthplace during the Cold War with her family and came to the U.S when she was seven years old.

Vladimir Vladimirovich Nabokov (Author from Russia) fled both his homeland and Germany as a refugee; first from the Red Army in St. Petersburg when he was young and later from the Nazis in Berlin years later, ending up in New York City in 1940.