Suicide is a big problem in this community. People are killing themselves because they don't get any love. Most people kill themselves because they get bullied by others. People need to recognize the people who try or want to commit suicide, because then maybe we could stop the people from killing themselves. In conclusion, we need to stop suicide before it kills another person in the community.
There's too much suicide in Detroit. My mom say a man try to get hit by a car and I couldn't believe what I heard. My sister tried to commit suicide too, when she was little. I even wanted to commit suicide on myself because I felt like I couldn't do anything right. I hope that states my point.

Suicide is an issue that people in Detroit may face. It is an issue because people may kill themselves. We should always stay positive when things like this happen. A friend of mine had an Uncle who committed suicide and it is something that needs to be stopped. Make a difference and stop suicide to make our world a better place.
The Suicide Life

by Raven Porter

Suicide is a grave issue in our community. Many people die just from bullying or not being loved by both parents. Then they end up killing themselves. Many people die every 30 seconds from suicide. This affects family, friends, and other people in our community because they care or maybe because of bullies. This is why I feel this way about suicide.

ALL YOU NEED

By: Amaya Carswell

Suicide is a social issue because it involves people getting hurt and killing themselves because they're being bullied or getting threatened also feeling unsafe and thinking that the people who are bullying would come for them so when they're alone they will not feel safe. That's why it's good to have close friends or family to love you and talk to. So when people tell you to go kill yourself and you feel like you should do it, you will think twice and you won't.

Suicide is a permanent solution to temporary problems.
Suicide is not just about feeling unsafe or thinking that people who are bullying you would come for you. It's also about when you're getting cursed out and you get mad and want to kill yourself. Also, when you post yourself and they say you ugly, you kill yourself.
Stop Suicide

This paragraph is about a very horrible social issue; suicide. Suicide is happening all over the world because people are getting either threatened or bullied. It starts off with a small comment or harmless name calling, but then it turns into something big like fighting or getting jumped by a group of people. Then it turns into something even bigger like SUICIDE.

Suicide is really bad for society because when people commit suicide it makes other kids want to commit suicide. It's really bad when a kid does not want to be here on earth. No kid should want to die. I really think children who commit suicide should be talked to or get a little more love. Not just at home but at school and even at family member's houses. I wish people would stop considering suicide.
Stop the Drugs
by: Gracelyn Taylor

I open my eyes, and I look around. Everyone is acting crazy in town. It hurts my heart to see this mess. It's causing me a lot of stress, people going to jail then trying to bail.

It makes me even madder, when people want to be bad. It's like why are you doing this to yourself, when you could get bad health. Bad, Bad, Bad, Bad, Bad, Bad, Bad, Bad, Bad, Bad.
Broken Shield

You protect someone with all your might, but you have to let them go. You held them tight, but they left like they blew. You have another chance to shield them, but you notice something strange. When you try to protect them, they die from old age, so the question stays. "Does life matter anyway?"

You've cried for your loved because their soul has fled. And all you want to do is cry on your bed. You also realize that they've went to a better place, and now you're asking that question "does life matter anyway?"

What a cruel person they can be it's like a tree with torn leaves. I'm feeling the pressure of commotion but I'm standing here without a bruising wondering why were being judged by our culture and whether were black or white please stop this lions den I want to be free just one more time again I want to be free just one can't you see I want to be free just one family.
My Life of Suicide

Suicide is a bad choice.
Can everyone make same noise?
Everyone is talking with their lips. But everyone don't see this glimpse.
Are you here? can you hear me?

Suicide is cruel.
don't you see?
This dumb thing is living inside me.
can you hear me, please?
Yes I can wait just freeze please.

Suicide

By Jeremiah

When I get tired of rapping
I take a nap I feel empty inside
I have bars I say I'm fling you
To Mars with my cars I feel
Like I'm in a private jet and jumping out.

If life was easy I wouldn't put
A gun to my head I feel sad inside
My head is bad minded I hung
Myself but didn't succeed
Now I see a future and forgot
The past but I feel like
A lonely soul. But I am free
From evil now I stomped the devil in his hole and gave
My life to God and be in
Jesus hands I pray every day
I went to church to worship
God every Sunday. I mow the Lawn every Sunday. I feel, I'm filled
With happiness Like
Suicide is a dangerous thing. People die here and almost everywhere. It's a horrible thing that happens every year. I wish I could make it stop because there is just too much of it. Make it stop so it doesn't happen to you.

As I look around this wonderful world, I hear and sometimes see kids committing suicide. It hurts people's families and a lot of people's hearts. I hope people could stop bullying and stop leaving people in a dark hole and leave them in a happy soul.

Black Panther Review by Samantha W.

Black Panther is the best movie ever. The movie is about a young man saving the day and helping others with missions to do. Black Panther lives in Wakanda but hidden in a secret spot where nobody knew it was at. In the beginning of the movie Black Panther’s dad passed away from two planes crashing into each other and Black Panther tries to save him but he died. After that Black Panther kept the village safe from other enemies coming in and attacking others. I think that was the best movie of my life.
How To Warm Up Your Voice

Mara Zeller

Step 1. Drink lots of water

Step 2. Think of a melody

Step 3. Sing the toon [La] over and over again

Step 4. Once you mastered that, turn your melody into words

Step 5. Once you accomplished 1-4, get ready for the long note, hold your breath and push the note out.

Reviewing Benihana

I’m going to review a restaurant which is Benihana. This restaurant is located in Troy, Michigan. When I go to the restaurant my first favorite dish is Chicken fried rice with shrimp. My second favorite food is Las Vegas Sushi rolls deep fried. I love those dishes because the chef who made the food has amazing taste just like me. I would recommend this restaurant to everyone.

If you're a noob listen to this press X to jump the battle bus land wherever you want to be a better player.

Then you get guns and get points. Also if you see an enemy far away and you miss your shoot you will alert the enemy which means your not that good yet.

But you can see your opponent shooting at you if on low health, build and run for safety.

Celebrate your Heritage

Johnniyae Graves

My dad is an inspiration and deserves to be celebrated. He owns 50 houses and that helps our community by fixing abandoned houses. Also this creates affordable houses for black people. This allows the neighborhoods to be more viable. That's why I think my dad deserves to be celebrated for what he did for our community.

review Spiderman ps4

This is a really good game a lot of people have it, fun game amazing graphics, and Over 100 skins. A whole lot of villains to fight, and there are portals were different heroes and villains come from different dimensions. Kind of fun, and there are like peoples stories, but some Spidermen don't have powers jump off a building trying to catch green.
Airtime Review
by Nadia Crump

On my birthday we went to Airtime to celebrate. Airtime is a place where kids go to have fun. At Airtime kids can play basketball, Dodge Ball and play on trampolines. My favorite thing was jumping on the cutes. The restaurant is located upstairs. Kids can buy pizza, spaghetti, taco, burgers and french fries. Kids should go there because it awesome.

Robot garage
By: Cheyenne Malpress

The robot garage is a place where we can have a wonderful experience. They have all types of fun things. They have a Lego store with all types of sets that you can buy. But that's not all the fun is just beginning. When you get there you get to have a little free but then the class starts. You get to make something robotic out of Legos which is the most fun part.

Michelle Obama
by: Tahiya Travick

I feel like Michelle Obama is a great celebration because she really helped our community. She helped our community by making a garden. Michelle was the first African American first lady. She inspires me because she loved to learn and she thought learning was fun. We have the same favorite foods, such as apple pie.
