Workforce Development & Education Opportunities

OSU Community Health Worker Training

Community Health Workers (CHWs) provide an important link to improve the health and well-being of their own neighborhoods. As members of the communities they serve, CHWs are frontline public health workers and assist in improving quality of care and breaking down cultural barriers to treatment. The Ohio State University College of Nursing can train you to take your place as a vital member of the health and wellness family. Classes prepare you for certification by the Ohio Board of Nursing as a Community Health Worker. The Spring Session starts January 10, 2023 and ends April 15, 2023. Learn more: <https://nursing.osu.edu/chw>.

CML Job Training with Goodwill & Jewish Family Services

Get free help with job searching, resume writing, interviewing skills and technology training at select locations of the Columbus Metropolitan Library. This service is available at the Franklinton branch (1061 W. Town St.) on Tuesdays from 9AM-12PM and the Hilltop branch (511 S. Hague Ave.) on Tuesdays 1-4PM. Call 614-470-4328 on Monday-Friday from 9AM-5PM to speak with a Job Coach. Learn more: <https://www.columbuslibrary.org/job-help/>.

Ohio Means Jobs Columbus-Franklin County

Ohio Means Jobs CFC works with thousands of people annually, serving Franklin County and surrounding counties in the Central Ohio region. The Job Center is staffed by experienced professionals who care deeply about the people and communities in which they live and serve. Join us for our C.O.R.R.E (Central Ohio Reemployment and Resource Event) Virtual Hiring Event where you can connect with employers, apply for available positions and learn about community resources from the comfort of your home. Upcoming dates: November 17-19 December 15-17. Learn more: <https://www.omjcfc.org/>.

Creating Central Ohio Futures (CCOHF)

Creating Central Ohio Futures is a non-profit organization that aims to educate, uplift, and place Central Ohio's workers into good paying jobs. CCOHF partners with the City of Columbus and Franklin County to offer two unique workforce development initiatives: Building Back Better Together and County Futures. Learn more: <https://www.ccohf.org/>.

- The Building Back Better Together program was created to give everyone the opportunity to a clear path to the Middle Class. Building Back Better Together (3BT) provides a broad range of opportunities ranging from obtaining your CDL to warehouse work to careers with the City of Columbus and beyond.
- County Futures is an established partnership between CCOHF, The Franklin County Commissioners, The Columbus Urban League, and the Franklin County Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion to assist individuals seeking employment with Franklin County. This community outreach and job training program is offered free to any Franklin County resident 18 or older.

Dress for Success

The Dress for Success Columbus (DFSC) Mobile Career Center (MCC) is at the Franklinton branch of the Columbus Metropolitan Library (1061 W Town, 43222) on the first Thursday of every month from 11AM-3PM. DFSC will suit attendees with an interview-ready outfit, accessories and shoes. Attendees can also get help with job readiness and career development. Everything is provided inside their Mobile Career Center!
