

Teresa A. Austin

"Anyone who sets their mind to expand their skills, expands their opportunities"

Teresa Austin's extensive experience includes over fifteen years of supporting organization Managers and Project Leads towards successful implementations and goal achievements. She is highly skilled in budget and resource tracking, forecasting, and business information technology.

Throughout her career, Teresa has developed and led teams to improve business profitability and efficiency through process and technology change. Over the years, Teresa has demonstrated her talent as a Vice President at Merrill Lynch (Bank of America), a Leader of Global Talent Management at MetLife, and as a Senior Consultant to Human Resources at University Hospital.

Teresa introduced and coordinated sessions on Dale Carnegie and Toastmasters into the Merrill Lynch Career Academy as a volunteer coach and mentor of High School Students.

Teresa holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Finance and Accounting from Howard University in Washington, D.C. and several course certifications on Project Management and Professional Development.

Contact Teresa by Email at: terryaustin@besttalentms.com or phone: 609.933.2958