Membership in this corporation shall not vest in any member any proprietary rights in the corporation but shall only entitle the member to vote at meetings of the members. Membership shall not be assignable inter vivos by any member nor shall membership vest to any personal representative, heir or devisee. The Board may also remove a person from membership in this corporation if, in its sole discretion, the Board determines that such removal is in the best interests of this corporation.

Section 2. Resignation and Expiration of Membership.

A member may resign from membership at any time by giving written notice to the Board and/or the President of this corporation. Membership in this corporation shall expire upon death or upon the member no longer meeting the membership criteria.

Section 3. Place of Meetings.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Bylaws, any meeting whether annual, special or adjourned of the members of this corporation may be held at any place within or without the State of California which has been designated therefore by the Board.

Section 4. Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the members shall be held in the fourth quarter of each year and shall be called by the Board, the Chairperson of the Board or the President and noticed in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

Section 5. Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the members for any lawful purpose may be called by the Board, the Chairperson of the Board, or the President. In addition, special meetings of the members for any lawful purpose may be called by five percent (5%) or more of the members.

Whenever members are required or permitted to take any action at a meeting, a written notice of the meeting shall be given to each member entitled to vote at the meeting not less than ten (10) and not more than ninety (90) days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall state the place, date, and time of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting, and no other business may be transacted. Section 12. Waiver and Consent.

The transactions at any meeting of members, however called or noticed, and wherever held, shall be as valid as if they had occurred at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum be present in person, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the persons entitled to vote not present in person signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to the holding of the meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof. ARTICLE IV

DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers.

Subject to any limitations contained in the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws and of the pertinent restrictions of the Corporations Code of the State of California, all the activities and affairs of this corporation shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board. The Board may delegate the management of the day-to-day operation of the activities of the corporation to a management company or other person or persons, however composed, provided that the activities and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board. Without prejudice to such general powers, but subject to the same limitations, it is hereby expressly declared that the Board shall have the following powers in addition to the other powers enumerated in these Bylaws:

(a) To select and remove all the officers, agents and employees of the corporation, prescribe such duties for them as may be consistent with law, with the Articles of Incorporation, or with these Bylaws, fix the terms of their offices and their compensation, and in the Board's discretion require from them security for faithful service.

(b) To make such disbursements from the funds and properties of the corporation as are required to fulfill the purposes of this corporation as more fully set out in the Articles of Incorporation thereof and generally to conduct, manage and control the activities and affairs of the corporation and to make such rules and regulations therefor not inconsistent with law, with the Articles of Incorporation or with these Bylaws, as they may deem best.

(c) To adopt, make and use a corporate seal and to alter the form of such seal from time to time as they may deem best.

(d) To borrow money and incur indebtedness for the purposes of the corporation and to cause to be executed and delivered therefore, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations, or other evidences of debt and securities therefore.

(e) To change the principal executive office or the principal business office from one location to another; to cause the corporation to be qualified to do business in any other state, territory, dependency, or country, and to conduct business within or outside the State of California; and to designate any place within or outside the State of California for the holding of any meeting or meetings.

Section 2. Number of Directors.

The number of directors of the corporation shall be not less than three (3) nor more than fifteen (15), with the exact number of directors to be fixed, within the limits specified, by approval of the Incorporator of this corporation, until the first Board of Directors is appointed, and thereafter by the Board.

Section 3. Selection and Tenure of Office.

After the initial appointment of the directors by the Incorporator of this corporation, directors shall be elected at each annual meeting of the members. Prior to the notice being given of the annual meeting of the members of this corporation, the Board shall nominate a slate of candidates equal to the number of directors to be elected at the annual meeting of the members. At the annual meeting of the members, the slate of candidates nominated by the Board shall be presented to the meeting. Thereafter, the members may nominate other individuals to serve as directors of this corporation. All individuals nominated by the Board or by the members must be present at the meeting in order to give their approval to the nomination or they must have previously given their approval to the nomination in writing and this written approval must be presented at the meeting. Each individual who is nominated by a member must also have a second to the nomination. Thereafter, the slate of candidates approved by the Board, plus the individuals nominated by the members, shall be submitted to a vote of the membership. This vote shall be by a ballot distributed to each member in attendance. However, the membership shall have the right to vote to hold the election by a voice vote, by a roll call vote, or by a show of hands vote. The candidates receiving the highest number of votes up to the number of directors to be elected shall be the individuals elected as the directors of this corporation. If there is a tie for the final position as a director, there shall be a run-off involving the individuals who tied. The individual receiving the highest number of votes in the run-off shall be elected as the final director of this corporation. If any such annual meeting is not held or the directors are not elected thereat, the directors may be elected at any special meeting of the members held for that purpose. The term of office for each director shall begin at the conclusion of the meeting at which he or she is elected (unless a different beginning time is approved by the Board) and shall continue until the conclusion of the next annual meeting (or special meeting held for the purpose of the election of directors) and until a successor has been elected and qualified.

Section 4. "Interested Person" as Director

Any other provision of these Bylaws notwithstanding, not more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the persons serving on the Board may be interested persons.

For the purpose of this Section, "interested persons" means either: (1) any person currently being compensated by the corporation for services rendered to it within the previous twelve (12) months, whether as a full- or part-time employee, independent contractor, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a director as director; or (2) any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, or father-in-law of any such person.

Section 5. Removal of Director

Any director may be removed from the Board subject to the provisions of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

Section 6. Resignation of Director.

Subject to the provisions of Section 5226 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, any director may resign effective upon giving written notice to the Chairperson of the Board, the President, the Secretary or the Board, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. If the resignation is effective at a future time, a successor may be elected to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

Section 7. Vacancies.

Vacancies on the Board may be filled by approval of the Board (pursuant to Section 5032 of the California Corporations Code) or, if the number of directors then in office is less than a quorum, by (1) the unanimous written consent of the directors then in office, (2) the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at a meeting held pursuant to notice and waivers of notice complying with Section 5211 of the California Corporations Code, or (3) a sole remaining director. Each director so elected shall hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the replaced director and until a successor has been elected and qualified.

A vacancy or vacancies on the Board shall be deemed to exist in case of the death, resignation or removal of any director, or if the authorized number of directors is increased.

The Board may declare vacant the office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of any court, or convicted of a felony, or been found by a final order or judgment of any court to have breached any duty under Article 3 (commencing with Section 5230) of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

No reduction of the authorized number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director prior to the expiration of the director's term of office.

Section 8. Place of Meetings.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Bylaws, any meeting of the Board may be held at any place within or without the State of California which has been heretofore designated for that purpose by the Board.

Section 9. Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Board shall be held in the month of fourth quarter of each calendar year and shall be called by the Board, the Chairperson of the Board or the President, and noticed in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

Section 10. Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chairperson of the Board, or the President or any Vice-President or the Secretary or any two directors or by the Board.

Section 11. Notice of Meetings.

Meetings of the Board shall be held upon not less than four days' notice by first-class mail or forty-eight hours' notice delivered personally or by telephone, including a voice messaging system or other system or technology designed to record and communicate messages, telegraph, facsimile, electronic mail, or other electronic means. Any such notice shall be addressed or delivered to each director or at such director's address as it is shown upon the records of the corporation or as may have been given to the corporation by the director for such purpose of notice or, if such address is not shown on such records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place in which the meetings of the directors are regularly held.

Section 12. Quorum and Board Action.

A majority of the directors in office shall constitute a quorum, provided that said majority of the directors in office shall constitute at least either one-third of the authorized number of directors approved by the Board (in accordance with Section 2 of this Article) or at least two directors, whichever is larger. A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place.

If the meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four hours, notice of any adjournment to another time or place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to the directors, if any, who were not present at the time of the adjournment. Except as the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws and the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law may provide, the act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board, provided, however, that any meeting at which a quorum was initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken shall be approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting, or such greater number as is required by the Articles, these Bylaws or by law.

Section 13. Emergency Provisions.

(a) Emergency. The emergency bylaw provisions of this section are adopted in accordance with the California Corporations Code. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this section applies solely during an emergency, which is the limited period of time during which a quorum cannot be readily convened for action as a result of the following events or circumstances until the event or circumstance has subsided or ended and a quorum can be readily convened in accordance with the notice and quorum requirements in these Bylaws:

(1) A natural catastrophe, including, but not limited to, a hurricane, tornado, storm, high water, wind-driven water, tidal wave, tsunami, earthquake, volcanic eruption, landslide, mudslide, snowstorm, or drought, or regardless of cause, any fire, flood, or explosion;

(2) An attack on this state or nation by an enemy of the United States of America, or on receipt by this state of a warning from the federal government indicating that an enemy attack is probable or imminent;

(3) An act of terrorism or other manmade disaster that results in extraordinary levels of casualties or damage or disruption severely affecting the infrastructure, environment, economy, government function, or population, including but not limited to, mass evacuations; or

(4) A state of emergency proclaimed by the Governor of the state in which one or more directors are residents, or by the President of the United States.

(b) Emergency Actions. During an emergency, the Board may

(1) Modify lines of succession to accommodate the incapacity of any director, officer, employee, or agent resulting from the emergency;

(2) Relocate the principal office or authorize the officers to do so;

(3) Give notice to a director or directors in any practicable manner under the circumstances, including but not limited to, by publication and radio, when notice of a meeting of the Board cannot be given to that director or directors in the manner prescribed by these Bylaws; and

(4) Modify the procedures for calling a Board meeting, quorum requirements for a Board meeting, a designation of additional or substitute directors; and

(5) Deem that one or more officers present at a board meeting is a director, in order of rank and within the same rank in order of seniority, as necessary to achieve a quorum.

During an emergency, the Board may not take any action that is not in this corporation's ordinary course of business. Any actions taken in good faith during an emergency under this Section may not be used to impose liability on a director, officer, employee or agent.

Section 14. Participation in Meetings by Conference Telephone.

Members of the Board may participate in a meeting through use of conference telephone, electronic video screen communication or other communications equipment, so long as all of the following apply:

(a) Each member participating in the meeting can communicate with all of the other members concurrently.

(b) Each member is provided the means of participating in all matters before the Board, including the capacity to propose, or to interpose an objection, to a specific action to be taken by this corporation.

(c) This corporation adopts and implements some means of verifying both of the following:

1) A person communicating by telephone, electronic video screen, or other communications equipment is a director entitled to participate in the Board meeting.

2) All statements, questions, actions, or votes were made by that director and not by another person not permitted to participate as a director.

Section 15. Waiver of Notice.

Notice of a meeting need not be given to any director who signs a waiver of notice or a written consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof, whether before or after the meeting, or to a director who attends the meeting without protesting, before or at its commencement about the lack of notice. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meetings.

Section 16. Adjournment.

A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any directors' meeting to another time and place. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent directors if the time and place be fixed at the meeting adjourned, except as provided in the next sentence. If the meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours, notice of any adjournment to another time or place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to the directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.

Section 17. Action Without Meeting.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action; provided, however, that the consent of any director who has a material financial interest in a transaction to which this corporation is a party and who is an "interested director" (as defined in California Corporations Code Section 5233) shall not be required for approval of that transaction. Such consent or consents shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the Board and shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board.

Section 18. Right of Inspection.

Every director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records and documents of every kind and to inspect the physical properties of this corporation.

Section 19. Committees.

The Board may establish committees and the members of the committees shall be appointed by the Board. A committee shall have such powers of the Board as may be expressly delegated to it by resolution of the Board, except with respect to:

(a) The approval of any action for which the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law also requires approval of the members or approval of a majority of all members, regardless of whether this corporation has members;

- (b) The filling of vacancies on the Board or on any committee;
- (c) The fixing of compensation of the directors for serving on the Board or on any committee;
- (d) The amendment or repeal of Bylaws or the adoption of new Bylaws;
- (e) The amendment or repeal of any resolution of the Board which by its express terms is not so amendable or repealable;
- (f) The appointment of other committees of the Board or the members thereof;
- (g) The expenditure of corporate funds to support a nominee for director after there are more people nominated for director than can be elected; or
- (h) The approval of any self-dealing transaction except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) of Section 5233 of the California Corporations Code.

The Board shall have the power to prescribe the manner in which proceedings of any such committee shall be conducted. In the absence of any such prescription, such committee shall have the power to prescribe the manner in which its proceedings shall be conducted. Unless the Board or such committee shall otherwise provide, the meetings and other actions of any such committee shall be governed by the provisions of this Article applicable to meetings and actions of the Board. Minutes shall be kept of each meeting of each committee.

Section 20. Fees and Compensation.

Directors shall not receive compensation for their services as directors. Directors may receive reimbursement for expenses as may be fixed or determined by the Board and may serve the organization in some other capacity for which compensation is paid.

Section 21. Annual Reports and Statements.

If required by Sections 6321 and 6322 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, the Board shall cause a report and a statement of certain transactions and indemnifications to be sent annually to the directors of this corporation.

Any officer may resign at any time, without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the corporation under any contract to which the officer is a party, by giving written notice to the Board of Directors, or to the President, or to the Secretary of the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect on the date of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein; and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5. Vacancies.

A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or any other cause shall be filled in the manner prescribed in the Bylaws for election or appointment to such office, provided that such vacancies shall be filled as they occur and not on an annual basis.

Section 8. Vice Chairperson of the Board.

The Vice Chairperson of the Board, if there shall be such an officer, shall, if present, preside at all meetings of the Board in the absence of the Chairperson of the Board, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Bylaws.

Section 9. President.

Subject to such supervisory powers, if any, as may be given by the Board to the Chairperson of the Board or the Vice Chairperson of the Board, if there be such officers, the President shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the corporation and shall, subject to the control of the Board, have general supervision, direction and control of the activities and officers of the corporation. In the absence of the Chairperson of the Board and the Vice Chairperson of the Board, or if there are none, he or she shall preside at all meetings of the Board. He or she shall have the general powers and duties of management usually vested in the office of President of a corporation, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Bylaws.

Section 10. Vice President.

In the absence or disability of the President, the Vice Presidents, if any, in order of their rank as fixed by the Board, or if not ranked, the Vice President designated by the Board, shall perform all the duties of the President, and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. The Vice Presidents shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed for them respectively by the Board or the Bylaws.

Section 11. Secretary.

The Secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, a book of minutes at the principal office or such other place as the Board of Directors may order, of all meetings of the Board and its committees, with the time and place of holding, how authorized, the notice thereof given, the names of those present at Board and committees' meetings, and the proceedings thereof. The Secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, at the principal office in the State of California the original or a copy of the corporation's Articles and Bylaws, as amended to date.

The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the Board and any committees thereof required by these Bylaws or by law to be given, shall cause the seal of the corporation to be kept in safe custody, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Bylaws.

Section 12. Treasurer/Chief Financial Officer.

The Treasurer shall be the Chief Financial Officer of the corporation and shall keep and maintain, or cause to be kept and maintained, adequate and correct accounts of the properties and business transactions of the corporation. The books of account shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by any director.

The Treasurer shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, all monies and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the corporation with such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. He or she shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, shall render to the President and directors, whenever they request it, an account of all corporate transactions and of the financial condition of the corporation, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Bylaws.

Section 13. Salaries.

The salaries of the officers shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors and no officer shall be prevented from receiving such salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a Director of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST POLICY

A Conflicts of Interest Policy shall be adopted by the Board to apply to the directors and officers of this corporation. This Conflicts of Interest Policy shall be reviewed by, and a Conflicts of Interest Disclosure Statement completed by, every director and officer of this corporation on an annual basis. Each completed Disclosure Statement shall then be reviewed annually by the Board. The Board shall determine, with the advice of legal or accounting professionals, if necessary, if any conflict of interest that has been disclosed, either in the Conflicts of Interest Disclosure Statement or at any other time pursuant to the Conflicts of Interest Policy, requires further Board action beyond mere disclosure to this Board of the conflict of interest.

ARTICLE VII

USE OF ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSIONS

This corporation is authorized to use electronic communications, as permitted by California Corporations Code Sections 20 and 5079. In this regard, this corporation may send meeting notices and all other communications/information/materials by electronic transmission to the officers and directors of this corporation to the e-mail address or facsimile number designated on a Consent form provided to this corporation by the officers and directors. Further, this corporation may rely on communications sent to this corporation by electronic transmission from the officers and directors from the e-mail address or facsimile number listed on the Consent form after the fully executed Consent form has been returned to this corporation.

Any action by the Board by use of electronic transmissions may be taken, but only if all members of the Board approve the action electronically or in writing. It is permissible to have some of the directors vote by electronic transmission and some of the directors vote by written consent, as long as the combination of votes reflect a unanimous vote of the entire Board. A copy of the votes by electronic transmission (and written consent, if applicable) shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Since Board actions by use of electronic transmissions must be by unanimous vote, no advance notice of the action to be voted upon is required.
