RED FLAGS
Warning Signs of the Sexual Exploitation of Children

HOUSEKEEPING
Be vigilant of situations where you observe multiple indicators listed below:

➢ Minor left in room seems confused about own name, appears helpless, ashamed, nervous or disorientated, shows signs of abuse such as bruises or scars
➢ “Do Not Disturb” sign is used constantly, or housekeeping services are refused for several days in a row
➢ Extended stay with few or no personal possessions
➢ Minor takes on adult rules such as requesting or refusing services
➢ Minor has expensive items like cell phone, jewelry or electronics
➢ Minor left in room for long periods of time
➢ Children’s items or clothing present, but no child registered in room
➢ Excessive number of guests staying in room
➢ Pornography, condoms, lubricants, sex toys, or provocative clothing are evident, with minors present
➢ Minor is present in room during school hours
➢ Large amounts of cash in the room, or suspicious technology such as credit card swipes, multiple laptops, pagers or cell phones
➢ Adults loiter in hallways or appear to monitor area

What to Do if You Suspect Trafficking or the Sexual Exploitation of Minors

➢ NEVER directly interfere with victim or suspect
➢ Notify the manager or other in-house supervisor
➢ Report your concern to County Human Trafficking Liaison or the Human Trafficking Hotline at 1-888-3737-888
➢ Call 911 if the risk of injury, violence, or aggression appears to be imminent