

Job Posting

Organizer, Protect Our Care CT Campaign

Protect Our Care CT Campaign (POCCT) is hiring an organizer to work in the northwest region of Connecticut. The POCCT organizer will focus on engaging individuals from grassroots organizations, community leaders and organizational allies in advocacy and organizing efforts to promote the POCCT agenda. POCCT (www.protectourcarect.org) is focused on the following:

The Protect Our Care CT Campaign supports comprehensive, high quality, affordable and accessible health care for all Connecticut residents.

Protect Our Care CT seeks to:

- preserve and strengthen the gains made by the Affordable Care Act, and
- defend Medicaid, Medicare and women's health programs.

Protect Our Care CT coordinates organizations and individuals committed to educate each other, the public and policy makers on health care issues to:

- respond to threats to health care coverage and programs, and
- advocate at the national and state level for policies that support health equity and health care for everyone.

The northwest POCCT organizer is a part-time position (20 hours per week) which starts in January 2018. POCCT is housed at the Universal Health Care Foundation of Connecticut in Meriden, CT – but the northwest POCCT organizer will be expected to work predominantly out in the field in the Litchfield County area.
