

Graph A. Amount that temperatures at land and water surfaces in September 2014 departed from September temperatures averaged from 1981-2010. Gray areas represent missing data.

Graph B. Amount by degrees C that average annual global temperatures were above or below the 100-year average.

Graph C. Air temperature averaged across the contiguous United States for each year since 1896 (blue line) and the trend in temperatures from 1896-2014 (red line).

Graph D. Air temperature averaged across western Montana for each year since 1896 (blue line) and the trend in temperatures from 1896-2014 (red line).