Things To Do Around Town This Weekend

Visit Historic Chatham Manor:

Where: 1207 Holly St, Fredericksburg, VA 22405

Description: Chatham Manor was built by William Fitzhugh during the years 1768-1771. During the Civil War it played a vital role as a Union headquarters, hospital and soup kitchen. The ridge was lined by artillery during the Fredericksburg Campaign. Today Chatham Manor is the headquarters of Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania National Military Park. About half of the main building and most of the out buildings are office space. The main building has five rooms of exhibits. Park volunteers give tours of the buildings. A 12 minute film is shown on the history of Chatham and a 32 minute film explains the Fredericksburg civilian experience during the Civil War.

Dinner @ Orofino Downtown Fredericksburg

Where: 1006 Caroline St., Fredericksburg VA, 22401

When: Daily, 5:00 p.m.– 10:00 p.m.

Description: Join with friends and family at the locally praised Orofino for a fun and romantic Valentine's Day get together. Authentic Italian food, great wine, and fair prices. This restaurant will bring out the foodie in the least picky among us! Call to make a reservation at 540-373-1352 and rest easy that your table is ready and waiting!
