

Loving Me

Lyrics by the Women from Gaia working with Martyna Baker

Verse 1

I was always smiling, smiling, smiling
Now you've got me crying, crying
Don't know when I lost myself,
Now I feel I'm someone else
I'm wrapped around your finger so
I need a plan to help let go
From all the pain you gave to me
Now I need to set me free

You go around and put me down
Isolate me from the crowd
Saying something's wrong with me
Maybe something's wrong with me
Or maybe in reality you're the thing that's wrong with me

Pre chorus

No more hurt, no more pain
No more hurt, no more pain
Cause I gotta let it go, let it go, let it go, let it go
I gotta let go, let go, let go, let go

Chorus

Cause I'm ready to just be me
And I'm ready to live happy
Yeah I'm steady cause I'm lovin' me

You can't stop me from being me
You can't have me, cause I belong to me
Yeah I'm steady cause I'm lovin' me

Verse 2

Now I'm always smiling, smiling
No more crying, crying
It was lonely when I made the change
I was fragile and I felt afraid
I was finding it so hard to trust
But to move along I knew I must
I'm finding peace inside of me
The future is a mystery
Now that I've repaired my heart
I'm moving to a fresh new start

Pre Chorus

No more hurt, no more pain
No more hurt, no more pain

Breakdown

I promised you I was gonna get by
It took some time, but I was willing to try
I found the strength waiting inside
Now I've grown my wings and I'm ready to fly

Pre Chorus
