Objective: Write a story about a sleepy dog using details to describe the characters' actions, thoughts and feelings.

Think: Imagine there is a sleepy dog.
Why is the dog sleepy?
What happens to the dog while they sleep?

Title: Sleepy __________________________

Characters: Who else will be in the story?

____________________________________________________________________________

Beginning: Where is the setting? Why is the dog sleepy?

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

Middle: What happens while the dog is sleeping?

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

End: What happens when the dog wakes up? How do they feel?

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

Write in complete sentences.

Word Bank

dream
snore
yawn
bed
visitors
nap