The Edgewalkers Retreat

Risk Being Seen and Heard

A retreat for those ready to go ALL IN on your soul's call.

You're on the edge of something. Are you ready to cross the threshold? This retreat is about visibility, and re/commitment to taking action, on a deep essence level. What did your soul come here to do? Where are you still holding back your gifts, passions, and expertise? How exhilarating could it feel to use ALL of your gifts in your life and work?

Melodee and Cara will hold sacred space for a journey that includes the mind, body, and spirit and will leave you with practical words and images to take your work to the next level. You'll be guided through group inquiry, story-telling, meditation/breathwork, writing, deep inner listening, connecting with the natural world in a sacred way, and being witnessed by the camera. When you connect to your essence and meet it with a deep committed YES, Universal support will flood in to help you in taking action. New and unexpected possibilities emerge from there!

June 28 - July 1

Joshua Tree, CA

Led by Cara Jones and Melodee Solomon

You will walk away from this one-of-a-kind experience with:

- A new written story of who you are and the work you are here to do that can serve as the heartbeat of your About page, future talks and workshops (including opportunities for 1-1 time with Cara).
- Photographs of you that reflect your essence back to you and the world (1-1 time with Melodee and her camera + 10 images and option to purchase more).
- Deeper, embodied, confidence and courage to do the work you came here to do.
- Connections with fellow travelers who are here for the deep work and don't take things too seriously — you might just leave with new lifelong friendships!
