Saint Monica

Saint Monica was born around the year 333 in northern Africa in a country now known as Algeria. She is a wonderful example of a holy woman in the early church.

When Saint Monica was young, her family arranged for her to marry a man she did not know. This man had a different faith than Monica. He was pagan and worshipped multiple gods. Although Monica's marriage was difficult, she remained faithful to her beliefs. She was so faithful that her husband converted to Christianity before passing away.

Saint Monica had three children. The most well-known of her children is Saint Augustine. When Augustine was young, he led a life that was far from the faith and Monica worried about him greatly. Every day for seventeen years she prayed earnestly for the conversion of his heart. Her persistent prayers were answered. Saint Augustine was baptized a Catholic and eventually became a bishop and very important Catholic writer. People read and are inspired by Saint Augustine's writing today.

Saint Monica died in the year 387. She is known as the patron saint of married women and mothers.

LEARN AND TAKE ACTION

Why Is It?

Why is it that Saint Monica was so persistent in praying for the conversion of her husband and son to the Catholic faith? What does this tell you about our faith?

Saint Monica was very patient and persistent in her prayer. We too can be patient and persistent in our prayers even if it takes a long time. Is there someone in your family who may have wandered from the faith? If so, pray for the conversion of heart for your family member and do not give up. You can ask Saint Monica to pray for patience and persistence for you.
