From the co-Presidents of the Friends of the Beverly Hills Public Library:

Charlotte Hill-Skura and I are honored to be the Co-Presidents of the Friends at this interesting time in history. While the Library is physically closed to patrons, we will continue to support the Library as it continues to function in the virtual world - supporting its virtual programs through social media and the library website which offers e-books, e-audiobooks and the streaming of music, videos and educational classes.

When the Library does open, I hope that we will be able to meet you again.
