

The Leader

Position Application: Editor in Chief

The Editor in Chief is The Leader's president and chief executive officer. As such, the person in that position is responsible for:

1. All content in the newspaper and online website
2. Recruit, train and appoint all section editors.
3. Conduct weekly staff meetings and semi-regular Editorial Board meetings.
4. Consult weekly with the Managing Editor and Online Editor regarding content
5. Oversee all production
6. Maintain all communication with readers (phone, mail, Internet)
7. Oversee business operations with the General Manager
8. Work closely with the Faculty Adviser and Online Adviser
9. Serve as the liaison with Student Government Association and EC Administration (in conjunction with the Faculty Adviser)
10. Represent The Leader on a college Media Board, should one be created.

Name:

Contact Info:

[phone number & email]

Class/Major:

GPA:

Current or previous positions in an EC student organization:

Media (or related) experience:

Writing experience and/or training:

Why do you care about Journalism?

Why do you want to be Editor in Chief?

If you were elected as Editor in Chief, what would you bring to the position? Why would you be the best candidate?

Optional:

How do you see the future of this paper? What would you like to change and/or improve?