

Honoring the Legacy and Dream of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Women's March San Diego honors the legacy and dream of Dr. Martin Luther King by working for the collective justice of all people. As we mobilize again this year with thousands in San Diego on Saturday, January 19th, we reaffirm our commitment to upholding the rights of women of all backgrounds, ethnicities, ages, faiths, immigration statuses, sexual orientations, gender identities, disabilities, occupations and socioeconomic statuses.

We recognize that the march falls amid the MLK Jr. week-long celebration. Dr. King and the many activists that came before and after him are the motivation behind and inspiration for this year's march theme, Truth to Power. He was a man who understood the injustices in the world and that we as citizens of this nation must speak to these truths.

Join us for the Women's March San Diego and for the events throughout the week celebrating and honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
