Mountain Top Arboretum is a public garden, which differs from a public park. Following Arboretum rules will help us maintain the plant collections and natural areas so that all may enjoy this very special place.

- Please smell and touch the plants. Do not pull, climb or damage them.
- Please walk on the grass, not in the flower beds.
- Stay on the trails in the wilder areas.
- Allow others to enjoy nature's sounds. Please use headphones.
- No food, picnicking, barbecuing, smoking (e-cigarettes included), sports activities or swimming.
- Dogs are not permitted in the West Meadow or the Woodland Walk.
- Dogs are permitted on-leash on Maude Adams Road and the East Meadow, and off-leash on Spruce Glen trails.
- Do not feed or approach animals and birds.
- Please only park in designated areas and respect our neighbors' privacy.
- Pushing strollers and wheelchairs is difficult on most of the paths due to the soft surfaces.
- Restrooms are located in the Education Center.
- Bird watching, painting, drawing and photography are encouraged!
