

Appendix, The Old Gardens

Following the sale of the 'Old Gardens', in 1868 a new road (Cardigan Road) was laid through, and building plots on either hand were sold. Many of the villas built then still survive now, though often with modifications and new uses.

	Now	Then	Then	Now
	SPRING ROAD
	Wall
	Extant 80 (flats) 82	Grove Villa	Clareville	43 Extant (flats)
C	84 Extant (hostel)	Cardigan House	C [Gardenhurst]	45 Rebuilt (flats)
H			A [villa]	47 Cardigan Court (flats)
A			D	49 Extended (flats)
P	96 Extant, extended (flats) 'Valley Court'	Valley House	I Oakhurst	51
E			G Bear Pit	53 Regency Court
L	Cumberland Court (flats)	vacant	A	The Cedars 55 E (flats)
			N Oak Villa	57 E (flats)
	100 Extant (flats) 'Bear Pit Gardens'	Sunnyside		villa E (HMO)
	114 Extant (nursery)	Sandholme	VICTORIA ROAD
	116 Extant (offices) 'Escher House'	villa	semi	Extant (flats)
L	Extant (flats)	Cockcroft House	R semi	61 Extant (flats)
A			semi	63 Extant (flats)
N	Town houses	[Newport House]	O semi	65 Extant (flats)
			A semi	67 Extant (flats)
			semi	69 Extant (flats)
E	NEWPORT ROAD		vacant	71 ext'n (flats)
	Church		D semi	75 Extant
	Extant (presbytery)	Cleveland House	semi	77 Extant
			semi	79 Extant (HMO)
	Chapel Fold		semi	81 Extant
				85 detached vacant	87 semi 89 semi
				91 semi
				93 semi (HMO)
	CARDIGAN LANE

Not to scale

E = extant, [...] = demolished, '...' = present name, (...) = present use.

Most properties on the west side are now accessed from Chapel Lane.

Richard Tyler, Headingley Development Trust