Tenderloin Community hosts San Francisco Mayoral Forum; candidates speak on issues affecting the city and Tenderloin

There are a lot of forums, but there is only one for and about the Tenderloin. The most important neighborhood shaping the future of San Francisco.

WHAT:
Tenderloin Mayoral Forum
• A forum for Tenderloin residents and stakeholders
• Candidates share on Citywide issues felt acutely in the Tenderloin
• Questions formulated from a community submission process
• Topics include public safety, open drug dealing, community health, cleanliness, housing, affordability, displacement, and equity.
• The Tenderloin represents an opportunity for our next city leader to implement solutions to the ailments playing out across the city and many parts of the nation.
• At its core, the Tenderloin is a family neighborhood populated more densely with children than any other in San Francisco.

WHO:
• A who’s who of TL residents, merchants, property owners, and other stakeholders including longtime neighborhood champions and institutions.
• Candidates to participate: Angela Alioto, London Breed, Richie Greenberg, Jane Kim, Mark Leno, and Amy Farah Weiss
• Moderator: GLIDE’s Senior Director of Programs, Kyriell M. Noon (bio below).

WHY:
• San Francisco needs an equitable and healthy Tenderloin. Embodying values of diversity and compassion with a history of pioneering human rights movements, it is not a place to contain problems but solve them.
