

Promises in the Bible

God's promissory note to fulfil you and to turn you into a more hopeful person.

God's promises in the Bible are nothing short of His commitment to do something special for His people; something that He will either give or do to build a hope and expectation within His people. This is His plan to bless His Children and better fulfill their lives as they live here on earth and as they look forward to spending eternity with Him.

The thought that comes to mind every time I read one of God's promises in the Bible is that He has some sort of provision planned for me that He proclaims on my behalf.

Moreover, I marvel at how the multifaceted and diverse qualities of God permeate and cover those who believe for themselves these promises to be true. There for we must take these promises at their face value, as the living word of God, and by faith have them become a reality in our lives.

Let's apply God's own promises to our lives.
