Veterans Outreach Center Inc.

2021
ANNUAL REPORT

Serving Those Who Serve U.S.®
FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
At Veterans Outreach Center, we believe in going the extra mile. We believe in giving people more than they expect. And we believe that when action meets compassion, lives change. 2021 put these philosophies to the test, as we - like so many other organizations - were impacted by labor shortages all year long. But despite our lean workforce, 2021 will be remembered as a year of hard work and progress at VOC. Even more importantly, it will be marked as a year of telling our veterans’ stories, lifting them up, and taking control of our attitudes and efforts in order to deliver the best programs possible.

One of the ways we accomplished these goals was by putting the health and well-being of our staff first. In 2021, VOC was named a workplace wellness rookie of the year by the Rochester Business Journal for creating a unique, internal health and wellness program for our staff. Some aspects of this program included offering healthy snacks each week via snack cart deliveries to their workspaces, encouraging better sleep hygiene by creating a space within our facility to rest during the day if needed, providing water bottles and pedometers to staff for hydration and fitness challenges, offering classes about proper setup of ergonomic workstations and purchasing new equipment accordingly, sending daily humorous emails for the health benefit of laughter at work, and so much more! In addition to receiving this award from the Rochester Business journal, VOC also earned the Department of Labor’s Hire Vets Medallion for our commitment to hiring those who have served (for the third year in a row).

In terms of progress, we completely transformed our brick and mortar flag store into an exclusively online business; as a result, we’re now able to focus efforts on revenue generation in the exploding e-commerce industry while freeing up valuable program space for our core mission.

In addition to that, we had over 8,000 visits from nearly 1,700 veterans needing assistance with employment and training, housing, legal issues, and so much more. We helped place 183 veterans in meaningful employment; we provided food, clothing and essential items to over 1,500 veterans - of which we made more than 600 home deliveries; we provided 460 permanent, unlimited bus passes through our partnership with RTS to vets in Monroe County, and traveled to 7 neighboring counties to issue another 80 passes; AND we started a new outdoor Rx program in partnership with Trybe Ecotherapy and Monroe County Veterans Service Agency, helping dozens of veterans to cope with PTSD and the challenges of military service in a unique, effective way.

Each of these programs and services came to fruition through careful planning and execution of our multi-year strategic plan. And as a result of good management practices and strong community support, 2021 ended with a positive budget that positioned us well for much-needed capital improvements in 2022 and long-range sustainability of VOC operations.

"You give life to what you give energy to." And as we celebrate the growth of this great organization, I can’t help but think of all the life that has been breathed into the Veterans Outreach Center since our founding, and the energy that sparked such life.

From all of us at Veterans Outreach Center, thank you for your support. It is because of you that we can continue providing critically needed services for local veterans.

Sincerely,

Laura Stradley

Marshall is an Army Veteran with an honorable discharge. He came to Veterans Outreach Center seeking help after getting a DWI. Marshall entered our Veterans Treatment Court program, which provides intensive case management to veterans with a mental health or substance abuse diagnosis to assist them in addressing issues they may be facing. In addition to that, Marshall was welcomed to Richards House, our emergency shelter for homeless veterans, to help him get back on his feet.

Once his life stabilized, VOC assisted Marshall with updating his resume and he was referred directly to local employers. He also utilized transportation assistance, participated in job readiness training from our Employment & Training team, and received new work clothes from our Quartermaster program.

Today, Marshall has graduated from Veterans Treatment Court, is working full-time, and has found a home of his own. He continues to use the services at our Morale Center to stay connected with other veterans and get some well-deserved self-care.
