MALBEC – 3 REGIONS – 3 STYLES

MENDOZA

MELODIAS WINEMAKERS SELECTION MALBEC, TRAPICHE 5⁵⁰ 22⁹⁵

The largest wine region in Argentina - Located on a high-altitude plateau at the edge of the Andes Mountains, the province is responsible for roughly 70 percent of the country's annual wine production. Malbec has its New World home in the vineyards of Mendoza, producing red wines of great concentration and intensity.

PATAGONIA

ESTATE MALBEC, HUMBERTO CANALE 6⁷⁵ 26⁹⁵

The Southern most wine region in Argentina - This region comprises the provinces of Río Negro, Neuquén and La Pampa. It is considered one of the most favorable places in the country for making wine. A special feature of the region is the slow and lengthy ripening of grapes. The altitude of its vineyards range from 300 to 500 meters above sea level. These characteristics grant Patagonian wines an elegant flavour.

SALTA

ESTATE MALBEC, EL ESTECO 6⁹⁵ 28⁹⁵

The Real Argentina - In the far north of Argentina is home to some of the world's most extreme vineyard sites. Many sit at lower latitudes and higher altitudes than anywhere else on Earth. These two factors balance each other out, the cold temperatures associated with high altitude are mitigated by the high temperatures found at these latitudes. The combination creates an excellent climate for quality wines. Argentina's signature grape variety Malbec is Salta's top performers, producing bright, intensely flavoured wines.
