

German Heritage Language School of Nova Scotia August 2016 Newsletter

Dear Parents, Friends, Students and Teachers:

Even as summer is in full swing, we are starting to feel cool breezes and rustling leaves which reminds us that September is indeed coming. German Heritage Language School classes begin on Thursday, September 15 at the Shambhala School.

Please register now so we can organize our groups for the first day of class.

Descriptions of classes and registration forms can be found on our website: www.german-language-school.ca and payments can now be made by PayPal.

Congratulations go to the Scholarship winners at the spring closing ceremonies in April:

Gerta Josenhans Memorial Scholarship : Elli Brown.
Eva Huber Memorial Scholarship : Chris Henkelmann.
German Canadian Association Scholarships:
Cora Fanning and Mike MacMillan.

The German Canadian Association is hosting an upcoming reading in german by author Renate Behr on Wednesday, August 17 at 7pm at 30 Boutilier Lane, Dartmouth. All are welcome.

At the Annual General meeting in May new members were added to the board as well as a new executive elected.

Director : Julia Pörtner
Chair : Christine Höhne
Treasurer : Sarah Ensslin
Secretary: Maya Sloan

A list of all board members can be found on the website.
