

BRING ON THE WALL

WHAT IS IT

Get permission to run a stall for a week in a prominent place in the college: reception, canteen, etc. You get some cakes, sweets, gospels, tracts and a giant piece of paper. You write out in large letters a question that you want students to answer such as:

If you could ask God one question, what would it be?
What's sacred to you?
What is the purpose of the Bible?
What do you think God is like?

You then invite students and staff to write out their questions or answers (depending on what you're asking!) on post-its and to stick them to the paper. You then chat with them about what they've written. You can run "Bring on the Wall" stalls at loads of different times of the year.

What you need

- Giant piece of paper – one that people can see from a distance
- A question.
- Post-its.
- Pens.
- Blu tack.
- Stall.
- Cakes and sweets.
- Gospels/tracts.
- Great venue.

WHAT TO DO BEFORE

Stall: Ask permission to run a stall for a few days of a week, in reception (or somewhere popular with students). Ask if you can put a giant piece of paper on the wall with a question that you'd love students and staff to answer.

Giant piece of paper: write out the question in large letters and blu tack it to the wall.

CU: rota different CU members onto the stall to cover the college day/week. Aim for at least 2 people on the stall at any one time. Pray, pray, pray for one another!

WHAT TO DO DURING THE WEEK

Invite people to write their questions or answers on post-its and place them on the banner.

Chat with people about their questions or answers...What an opportunity to chat about Jesus! If you're not sure how to answer someone, tell them that you will try to find out.

Give-aways: Have some Gospels, tracts, sweets and cakes on the stall and give them away.

Invitations: have some flyers on the stall for an event you'd love people to come along to in college that answers the questions you're asking in a relevant way.

Answers: If you end up doing the "If you could ask God one question, what would it be?", then each night after running the stall you could try to write a short, biblical response to the questions & put them up on the wall the following day. Get hold of a copy of Roger Carswell's brilliant book:

www.10offhose.com/products/6648/Grill-a-Christian/ or get free copies from Festive to give away.

Pray your socks off for the people you spoke to!
