

Tillers' Scholarship Application for Draft Animal Farming Classes

Thank you for your interest in the Tillers Draft Animal class scholarship program. Please complete the following application form and submit it to Ryan DeRamus at deramus@tillersinternational.org or to the address at the bottom of the page. Contact Ryan with any questions or for more details at 269.626.0223. We will let you know as soon as possible if you are chosen to receive the scholarship.

The scholarship will cover from 60% to 100% of the tuition for draft animal classes (the remainder of the tuition, any materials fee, and lodging are the responsibility of the student). There is a limit of $500 per year per student. Please include a photocopy or scanned image of your current drivers license or passport with your application.

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone Number _____ cell/home/work

Email address _____ Date of Birth _____

1. Describe your interest in draft animal farming.

2. How do you intend to use the knowledge you gain from these classes?

3. Describe your current experience, if any, with draft animals.

4. Please describe your farming experience.

5. Which draft animal class or classes are you interested in taking with this scholarship?

6. Have you taken classes before at Tillers? If so, which ones?

Please feel free to use additional pages if necessary. Thank you.

Lodging: Lodging is available at Tillers International. We have a guest house with 4 guest rooms and plenty of space outside for camping. Camping is the most economical lodging option available at $7 per night for a regular site and $10 if you need electricity.

Meals: Lunches are included for each day of class. Lunch is a full sit-down buffet style meal. Dietary needs are accommodated as much as possible. For guests in the house or campers, a light self-serve breakfast is available. All students are on their own for dinner. Use of the refrigerator and kitchen is available to all guests.