Easiest-to-Use

Offering only the features you need and none you don't, the smartly designed system includes easy-to-follow prompts and automated features. The 20 Dollar Eval provides configurable performance review forms and allows you to easily enter your reporting structure. Manager feedback is combined with self-reviews and your team has on-demand access to performance review reports. Both efficient and intuitive, the 20 Dollar Eval requires zero technical expertise to implement, so team members can start using the technology and benefiting from the feedback immediately.

Most-Affordable

With the 20 Dollar Eval, you get exactly what the name promises – a simple, professional, any-time accessible performance review system that is the perfect solution for small-to-medium sized companies and teams within large organizations. For as little as $20 per review, you can provide high-quality reviews for everyone in your company. And you get great bang for your buck.

The 20 Dollar Eval keeps track of the cumulative number of reports you purchase for your organization under a single account. Once you cross over any volume thresholds, you are automatically upgraded to the corresponding plan and receive the lower price for all future review purchases.
